

OUR WORK IS CHILD'S PLAY – THE ART OF PLAY THERAPY!

(Sponsored by Idaho Association for Play Therapy)

Whereas the developing child is not able to verbally express the inner world of feelings, thoughts, and desires, play therapy offers clients an opportunity to express personal experiences through the natural medium of expression for children – PLAY!

This workshop is designed to address:

- relationship between play and development,
- use of play to facilitate client growth,
- therapeutic selection of play materials,
- process differentiations in play therapy, and
- application of didactic learning.
